

Become A Friend of August Quarterly

Many of us remember attending the August Quarterly. In fact, our parents, and their parents, and their parents before them supported this event as a way to remember as well as to look forward.

The Festival has always been a free event and open to the public. An event where all people come together in joy and friendship. In order to continue to operate the festival and ensure our legacy continues, we need YOUR help and monetary support.

Become a Friend of the August Quarterly! As an AQ Friend, you will help us to continue to be able to celebrate this event as we move toward our 200th year as the longest running African American celebration in United States history.

It is an expensive event and your tax deductible contributions will help us to keep up the tradition. This annual celebration is a joyous occasion where families and friends enjoy music, crafts, singing, preaching, stage performance, children events, fashion shows, storytelling, drama, vendors, foods arts, African Clothing, books, tee-shirts, nationally known recording artists and much more.

Feel more a part of this historic Festival and exciting celebration by becoming a Friend at any of the following levels: Please mark X beside the level choice(s).
